Reflection Questions for the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

How can I be fertile soil in which the seed God sows may grow?

In your own life where have you seen God's mysterious power at work lately?

How do the images of God's working in nature help you understand God's working in our lives?

PASTOR'S With all the rain we have received, we will see much growth in our fields, gardens, and lawns. Our readings this weekend focus on God's creative power working mysteriously to bring about God's Kingdom. We are invited to do our part in welcoming and helping to build God's Kingdom.

Happy Father's Day to all our fathers, grandfathers and godfathers!

As people came to St. Andrew's school building last Sunday, I heard many reminisce of their time in school there. Selling a building with so many memories attached to it brings out a sense of loss. Just because we may not own the building in the future does not take away or diminish your experiences and memories. St. Andrew's school is and will remain an important part of the faith life of this area. I also heard many express that they were pleased that the building would continue to be used and not taken down. Thank you to the many who generously helped to move so many things to the gym and cafeteria last week. After the morning time for parishioners to look, a couple who is part of a Catholic home-school coop in the Twin Cities were thrilled to get many of the full-sized desks and folding chairs as well as some tables and the long church pew.

Thanks also to those who helped move our AFC office to the front (east) office of St. Andrew's rectory. Please have some patience with us as we have to unpack and find everything we need. If everything goes according to plan, we will keep Danette's office number (426-7739) as well as the priest's (426-7125).

Thanks also to our Knights of Columbus who are helping with a generous financial gift and with volunteering to help me host our New Ulm Diocese's Priest's Golf Tourney at Mayflower Country Club on June 18th.

I'm looking forward to the farewell events this Wednesday evening starting with 5:30 pm Mass at St. Andrew's. I hope you can come and participate.

Today we praise God for you, Fr. Jeff, who served us throughout these 8 years. You laughed with us and comforted us in our tears. You were sent by God to lead us, to trust in the Gospel, and to witness to all we have seen. We are grateful for you, your presence, and all the gifts you have shared with us. May the beauty of God be upon you. May you know his grace in all that is to come. May God bless you as you continue God's work with the Shepherd of Souls AFC. We send you with our blessing and love!

A JOB OF LOVE The St. Andrew's Quilters have folded up due to the sale of St. Andrew's school after 24 years of service to the poor and needy. We thank all the ladies that came to sew on Friday mornings. Thanks to everyone that donated material, sewing machines, chairs, ironing board, iron and money and those that delivered the quilts to different places. We appreciated all this, and we had fun doing this great job. We averaged 2400 quilts. After we were all done, we went to the Senior Center for noon lunch. Delores Kortz, Chairperson
