The people brought to Jesus a deaf man to be cured. Taking him aside, Jesus cured him, asking him to keep this a secret. But the man proclaimed the cure all the more. The people were amazed at this power.

An often overlooked aspect of the healing story in this weekend's Gospel is that other people brought the deaf man to Jesus. Like some other healing miracles, this one occurs not because of the sick person's initiative, but because others were there to bring the person to Jesus' attention. We may not often think of the role that we play in healing. One of the corporal works of mercy is to visit the sick and including them in our prayers has always been an important aspect of our faith. We may not be bringing deaf people to Jesus to have him cure them, but we can pray for all the sick and ask God to give them strength.

"Lord Jesus, secure justice for the oppressed."

MESSAGE FROM BISHOP LEVOIR From September 9 through 20, I am leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and will dedicate this pilgrimage to the healing of the wounds of sexual abuse. As a member of the Church hierarchy, I will do prayer, fasting, and penance in the Holy Land at all of the holy sites, especially at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem (Monday, September 17). It is this church that houses both the site of the crucifixion of Christ and the site of his resurrection.

The laity did not cause this scandal in the Church and they have every right to be angry and disheartened. However, I would ask that in solidarity they join with me in prayer, fasting, and penance from September 9 through 20 asking Our Lord for healing of the wounds caused by the sexual abuse perpetrated by clergy and the negligence of the hierarchy to stop such abuse.
