Do some relationships fail to mirror that love God had for us?

The Pharisees, knowing the permission of Moses about divorce, test Jesus, but he recalls the reason for the command and he reminds them of God's intention for the unity of marriage. Divorce followed by remarriage is adultery. (Jesus then speaks about his love for little children and their innocence.)

That relationships can sometimes be difficult is no great revelation to the Christian. As much as we profess to follow Christ's command to love, we know that things do not always go smoothly between human beings. Conflict is also part of the human condition. How we deal with conflict can be a true test of our faith. Honest and straight forward communication, expressed in a manner that is more suggestive of love rather than hatred or disdain, can be an example of how a Christian responds to conflict. Experiencing conflict is inevitable. Dealing with it in a Christian attitude takes some practice.

"Lord Jesus, enlighten us with a greater understanding of marriage and family."

I will be out of the office October 9th & 10th for Pastoral Leader Days.

WELCOME BACK FR. BRUNO: We are happy to have you back. We hope you had a wonderful time with family, your Benedictine brothers and other friends. May your time with them energize you and stay with you in the weeks to come.

PASTORAL LEADER DAYS: Pastoral Leader Days will take place this coming Tuesday and Wednesday in Willmar. Therefore, there will be no Wednesday morning Mass in Gibbon.

ALL EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS: Thanks to all Eucharistic ministers who attended the session this past weekend in our parishes. If you were unable to attend, please pick up a sheet in your church with your name on it. It contains some reminders and enrichment for you as you share Christ with others.

WORLD TEACHERS' DAY: We just celebrated World Teachers' Day on Oct. 5. Thanks to all of you who serve as teachers in schools, Religious Education programs, Colleges and beyond. We are grateful for the ways you enrich the lives of our youth and those who are making plans for their future. Let us also pray for the 264 million children and youth who do not have trained and qualified teachers. Let us pray the "teacher gap" will decrease in these next years so that all people have the opportunity for education.

NATIONAL FARMER'S DAY: On Friday, Oct. 12, we acknowledge all farmers who plow, sow, raise, feed, and harvest to provide the food and materials that our country needs to survive. As you partake of a meal on Friday thank God for those who help put food on the table for you.

SSND CRAFT FAIR: Please join the School Sisters of Notre Dame at their annual craft fair. The craft fair features baked goods, jams and jellies, garage sale, ceramics, crafts, woodcarving studio and plants. Breakfast, lunch and dessert will be available. “ BISHOP LEVOIR HAS ASKED THAT A SECOND COLLECTION BE TAKEN UP FOR VICTIMS OF HURRICANE FLORENCE AND THE FLOODING IN THE CAROLINAS as well as other 2018 weather related events. Catholic Charities USA and the USCCB uses these funds for direct relief to those displaced and to assist parishes with the disruption these storms have caused. Our own diocese has been a beneficiary of these collections this year as 36 households have received over $32,000 in assistance from the proceeds of a diocesan second collection and a Catholic Charities USA assistance grant following the severe flooding due to the heavy rains in early July. This collection will take place this weekend, October 6th and 7th. Please be generous in your support of this USCCB second collection for 2018 Weather Disasters.”

RESPECT LIFE - October is Respect Life Month for the United States, and the annual Respect Life Sunday is October 7th. The theme this year is “Every life – Cherished, Chosen, and Sent”! May we ask everyone to pray for respect for the sacredness of all life – from conception to natural death? Following is an appropriate prayer for this month. This effort is recommended by our local CCW chapters’ Reverence for Life Commission.

Prayer for Life:

Holy Spirit, At the dawn of creation,

You brought order out of chaos, Light out of darkness, Life out of nothingness.

Breathe on us once again, and change this culture of death into a Culture of Life.

Inspire in your people a spirit of generous welcome for each and every life,

No matter how unexpected or dependent that life may be.

Holy Spirit, You are the Advocate.

As you fill us with Yourself, make us advocates for the unborn and all the vulnerable,

Until we are all united in the endless life and joy of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,

One God, forever and ever. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC HOLY HOUR—Sunday, October 7th, at St. Willibrord’s, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Holy Hour will include the Rosary, scripture readings, prayer, and time for silent meditation before the Blessed Sacrament.

We will offer this Holy Hour for our Catholic church – for healing and cleansing of the sins of sexual abuse committed by its members. Everyone welcome!

2018 DIOCESAN ETHICS CONFERENCE – OCTOBER 13, 2018 Reaping the Fruits of Humane Vitae 50 Years Later – On Oct.13 the Diocese of New Ulm will host its annual ethics conference and its celebration of the 50-year anniversary of Humanae Vitae at Schoenstatt on the Lake in Sleepy Eye. The opening Mass, celebrated by Bishop John LeVoir, will be at 9:00 am and the conference will end at 4:30. We have a great list of speakers that will be both informative and entertaining. The cost is $20.00 per person and $35.00 per couple. Come and celebrate the gift that Humanae Vitae is for couples and families as we unfold its meaning for today’s Church and world. Go to www.dnu.org/ethicsconference/ for registration and conference information. Contact Cindy Blickem, 507-233-5325, cblickem@dnu.org for further information or questions.

STOP, GAZE, AND LISTEN WITH WINE THIS ADVENT!

Do you have vivid memories of Christmas as a child? The Gospels are vague about the childhood of Jesus, but six key moments in his early life are worth pondering.

Grab your glasses for some visio divina “sacred seeing” with WINE (Women In the New Evangelization) this Advent and Christmas season!

WINE: Women In the New Evangelization is a ministry of passionate and ridiculously busy women empowering each other to nurture, heal, and build up the body of Christ with our feminine gifts and charisms. Our book club is one way we come together as sisters in Christ to encourage and pray for one another.

Join us on Tuesday October 30, 2018 at 6:45 am as we launch this Advent study on the infancy of Christ as seen through the eyes of Mary and other gospel women. The newest WINE book (written by founder Kelly Wahlquist and ten other members) creatively blends scripture, imaginative encounters, virtue studies, and sacred art to help us Gaze Upon Jesus. We will meet in a small group weekly on Tuesday mornings from 6:45am – 7:45 am to share thoughts from the book readings and insights written in our Gaze Upon Jesus journals.

Come prepare your heart for Christmas! Contact Kellie Sloom or Lorie Schauer to register by October 14th and see the childhood of Jesus through new eyes.

Meetings will be held at St. Francis in Winthrop – Kellie Sloom 320-583-6755 or Lorie Schauer 507-647-2173

October is “DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH”. Awareness is key! Violence is so common, not just physical but emotional and sexual. I encourage you to look at this following resource, you don’t know what you don’t know!

<http://www.uscch.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/when-i-call-for-help.cfm> Pamphlets are also available to pick up at the entrance of church

An Overview of Domestic Violence

Domestic violence is any kind of behavior that a person uses to control an intimate partner through fear and intimidation. It includes physical, sexual, psychological, verbal, and economic abuse. Some examples of domestic abuse include battering, name-calling and insults, threats to kill or harm one’s partner or children, destruction of property, marital rape, and forced sterilization or abortion.⁸

Domestic violence is often shrouded in silence. People outside the family hesitate to interfere, even when they suspect abuse is occurring. Many times even extended family denies that abuse exists, out of loyalty to the abuser and in order to protect the image of the family. Some people still argue—mistakenly—that intervention by outside sources endangers the sanctity of the home. Yet abuse and assault are no less serious when they occur within a family. Even when domestic violence is reported, sometimes there are failures to protect victims adequately or to punish perpetrators.

The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides crisis intervention and referrals to local service providers. Call 800-799-SAFE (7233) or 800-787-3224 (TTY). For more information, go to www.thehotline.org. Hotline Advocates are available to chat online, Monday to Friday, 9AM-7PM CST.
