How would my behavior change if I reorient myself toward others and away from myself? What does it take for me to change my mind about another person or plan? What areas of my thinking or acting are fixed and locked in? In what areas am I willing to change my mind and grow?

Reflection meditation:

The other day, someone observed the town of Arlington, MN, already views itself as a suburb to the suburbs for the Cities. To the question, when will Winthrop, Gibbon, and Fairfax be suburbs to the suburbs? One person said, “that will be a long time.” Someone else said, “There are already people who make that drive.” Another said, “the traffic on Highways 19 and 212 has gone up in the last 30 years.” People nodded their heads. Maybe the conversation was changing minds about what the future holds for our towns. In Matthew 21:28-32, Jesus asks what does it take to change your mind? The chief priests and elders have what psychologists call a fixed mindset. A fixed mindset is locked in, refuses new data, is unable to adapt, can be defensive instead of open, and often misses what is obvious. Jesus reminds them they rejected the new information John the Baptist preached “in the way of righteousness.” These leaders have a fixed mindset instead of a growth mindset. John the Baptist said, “The Kingdom of God is at hand” (Matthew 3:2), and “Behold, the Lamb of God” referring to Jesus (John 1:29). The king said, off with his head (Matthew 14:10, Mark 6:27, Luke 9:9). In Matthew’s Gospel, the son who says, “I will not” serve in the vineyard, changes his mind “and went.” He has the growth mindset Jesus looks for in his disciples. A growth mindset is open to new information, willing to adapt, is coachable, and capable of seeing the obvious. Do you have a fixed or growth mindset? About the future of Winthrop, Gibbon, and Fairfax? About whom can get to heaven? About what you’re willing to do for Jesus? About a human fetus’ right to life? As a disciple of Jesus, you can ask him to help you develop a growth mindset this week.

Blessings,
Fr. Rolling

MASS INTENTIONS can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

CATHOLIC PARISHES CELEBRATE COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN (CCW) SUNDAY – October 8th

Sunday, October 8, 2023 has been proclaimed as Council of Catholic Women Recognition Sunday in the Diocese of New Ulm. The National Council of Catholic Women (NCCW) is an organization of concerned women established by the Bishops of the United States over 100 years ago to offer women the opportunity to increase their knowledge of the Church, strengthen their leadership skills, and deepen their spirituality through prayer and service. The Council of Catholic Women has been a vital force in the Catholic life of the Diocese of New Ulm since the time of formation.

The activities of CCW are meant to help women become better Christians. CCW exists to help the work of Christ become more evident and visible in the world by helping women to grow spiritually as individuals, as well as building up families and parishes. When women become actively involved in CCW, they are building up the Body of Christ. By inviting and encouraging other women to become involved in CCW, they are helping them grow in holiness.

The mission statement of the National Council of Catholic Women is carried out in our New Ulm Diocese: Supporting, empowering, and educating members in spirituality, leadership and service; reaching out with Gospel values to meet the needs of Church and society.

Council of Catholic Women (CCW) Recognition Sunday is the day to highlight the activities and leadership carried out by Catholic women in our area parishes!

October is “DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH”. Awareness is key! Violence is so common, not just physical but emotional and sexual. I encourage you to look at this following resource, you don’t know what you don’t know!

<http://www.uscch.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/when-i-call-for-help.cfm> Pamphlets are also available to pick up at the entrance of church

An Overview of Domestic Violence

Domestic violence is any kind of behavior that a person uses to control an intimate partner through fear and intimidation. It includes physical, sexual, psychological, verbal, and economic abuse. Some examples of domestic abuse include battering, name-calling and insults, threats to kill or harm one’s partner or children, destruction of property, marital rape, and forced sterilization or abortion. Domestic violence is often shrouded in silence. People outside the family hesitate to interfere, even when they suspect abuse is occurring. Many times even extended family denies that abuse exists, out of loyalty to the abuser and in order to protect the image of the family. Some people still argue—mistakenly—that intervention by outside sources endangers the sanctity of the home. Yet abuse and assault are no less serious when they occur within a family. Even when domestic violence is reported, sometimes there are failures to protect victims adequately or to punish perpetrators.

The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides crisis intervention and referrals to local service providers. Call 800-799-SAFE (7233) or 800-787-3224 (TTY). For more information, go to www.thehotline.org. Hotline Advocates are available to chat online, Monday to Friday, 9AM-7PM CST.

PRAYER TO END DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

O God, our world at times is divided and hostile. Some people consider themselves dominate over others based on gender, race, color, class or status. Through your Son’s cross our world can be reconciled; the walls of hostility can be broken. We pray for all women who experience the pain and suffering of violence, that they may feel your healing touch and be at peace in your living embrace. We pray for those who victimize and abuse others, that they may see the errors of their sins and seek repentance. Through the intercession of Our Lady of Good Counsel, may we understand and support those who may come to us for help. We ask these things through your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

ENGLISH:

Dear community, in today Gospel message, we find a call to obedience, and in it, we see the radiant example of Christ. With affection, I share this prayer for the week, hoping that the image of Christ may shine with increasing clarity in our hearts.

Beloved Heavenly Father, just and Savior God, You illuminate the path of sinners and guide the humble with righteousness. Today, Lord, we ask that You show us Your ways and lead us with Your truth; in You, we place our hope. Remember that Your love and tenderness are eternal; we beseech You to grant us Your Spirit to live in unity and humility, following the example of Christ Jesus.

With repentance, we desire to recognize His voice and wholeheartedly follow Him. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our Good Shepherd. Amen.
