Pride brings no true reward but only projects an "image." In humility true values are seen. Every Sunday Christians around the world head to church to pray. Their experience is not that different from the two men in today's Gospel parable who also go to the Temple to pray. And like them it is the attitude of our prayer that opens us to God's mercy and love. Our prayer is not about self-exaggeration-for who could do that before God who is almighty and all-knowing? Rather, our prayer is simple and humble acknowledging our own dependence on the One who is Lord of all. It is that witness to God's love that we can share with those who do not yet believe.

"The Rosary is a magnificent and universal prayer for the needs of the Church, the nations and the entire world." ~Pope St. John XXIII

When Our Lady appeared at Fatima, Portugal, she asked that the Rosary be prayed for peace. As an immensely powerful prayer, the Rosary also has benefits for our minds, hearts and souls.

MARY'S BLESSING Nobody sees the life of a child the way that child's mother does. Our Lady has a mother's perspective of Jesus' life. Learning and sharing that perspective helps us ponder the life of Jesus through the eyes of his Mother. This is a powerful experience if we enter into it fully.

Fr. Bruno OSB

October is "DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH". Awareness is key! Violence is so common, not just physical but emotional and sexual. I encourage you to look at this following resource, you don't know what you don't know!
<http://www.uscch.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/when-i-call-for-help.cfm> Pamphlets are also available to pick up at the entrance of church

What You Can Do to Help

We offer the following practical suggestions for several audiences.

For Abused Women

- Begin to believe that you are not alone and that help is available for you and your children.
- Talk in confidence to someone you trust: a relative, friend, parish priest, deacon, religious sister or brother, or lay minister.
- If you choose to stay in the situation, at least for now, set up a plan of action to ensure your safety. This includes hiding a car key, personal documents, and some money in a safe place and locating somewhere to go in an emergency.
- Find out about resources in your area that offer help to battered women and their children. The phone book lists numbers to call in your local area. Your diocesan Catholic Charities office or family life office can help. Catholic Charities often has qualified counselors on staff and can provide emergency assistance and other kinds of help.
- The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides crisis intervention and referrals to local service providers. Call 800-799-SAFE (7233) or 800-787-3224 (TTY). For more information, go to www.thehotline.org. Hotline Advocates are available to chat online, Monday to Friday, 9AM-7PM CST. In some communities, cell phones programmed to 911 are made available to abused women.

For Men Who Abuse

- Admit that the abuse is your problem, not your partner's, and have the manly courage to seek help. Begin to believe that you can change your behavior if you choose to do so.
- Be willing to reach out for help. Talk to someone you trust who can help you evaluate the situation. Contact Catholic Charities or other church or community agencies for the name of a program for abusers.
- Keep in mind that the Church is available to help you. Part of the mission Jesus entrusted to us is to offer healing when it is needed. Contact your parish.
- Find alternative ways to act when you become frustrated or angry. Talk to other men who have overcome abusive behavior. Find out what they did and how they did it.
