Reflection meditation:

Google “unleash + potential + coaching” and lots of articles pop up. You might see words like “best practices,” “increase effectiveness,” or “engage your team.” Just as athletes compete with other teams and each athlete competes with his or her own past performance, Christ calls each disciple to unleash his or her potential. St. Paul writes in Philippians 4:6-9, whatever is true, honorable, just, pure, lovely, gracious, excellent...”think about these things.” Unleash your potential. Like any athlete or team, the trouble is we forget to seek what the Lord seeks, “a people that will produce its fruit” (Matthew 21:43). When a soul loses sight of being fruitful for God’s kingdom, a soul can begin to seek entitlements. Jesus describes this in Matthew 21:33-43. The Lord sends two sets of servants to the vineyard, and both are killed by the tenants who feel entitled to what belongs to God. The Lord sends his son. The tenants say, “Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.” In this Scripture, Jesus is the son. Here, Jesus is forecasting his own death at the hands of those believe the “fruit” belongs to them. What Jesus is looking for are disciples who will produce fruit by raising up more Christians for God. This week, seek what the Lord seeks. “Unleash + Your + Potential.”

Blessings,
Fr. Rolling

MASS INTENTIONS can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

October is “DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS MONTH”. Awareness is key! Violence is so common, not just physical but emotional and sexual. I encourage you to look at this following resource, you don't know what you don't know! <http://www.uscch.org/issues-and-action/marriage-and-family/marriage/domestic-violence/when-i-call-for-help.cfm> Pamphlets are also available to pick up at the entrance of church

What You Can Do to Help

We offer the following practical suggestions for several audiences.

For Abused Women

- Begin to believe that you are not alone and that help is available for you and your children.
- Talk in confidence to someone you trust: a relative, friend, parish priest, deacon, religious sister or brother, or lay minister.
- If you choose to stay in the situation, at least for now, set up a plan of action to ensure your safety. This includes hiding a car key, personal documents, and some money in a safe place and locating somewhere to go in an emergency.
- Find out about resources in your area that offer help to battered women and their children. The phone book lists numbers to call in your local area. Your diocesan Catholic Charities office or family life office can help. Catholic Charities often has qualified counselors on staff and can provide emergency assistance and other kinds of help.
- The National Domestic Violence Hotline provides crisis intervention and referrals to local service providers. Call 800-799-SAFE (7233) or 800-787-3224 (TTY). For more information, go to www.thehotline.org. Hotline Advocates are available to chat online, Monday to Friday, 9AM-7PM CST. In some communities, cell phones programmed to 911 are made available to abused women.

For Men Who Abuse

- Admit that the abuse is your problem, not your partner's, and have the manly courage to seek help. Begin to believe that you can change your behavior if you choose to do so.
- Be willing to reach out for help. Talk to someone you trust who can help you evaluate the situation. Contact Catholic Charities or other church or community agencies for the name of a program for abusers.
- Keep in mind that the Church is available to help you. Part of the mission Jesus entrusted to us is to offer healing when it is needed. Contact your parish.
- Find alternative ways to act when you become frustrated or angry. Talk to other men who have overcome abusive behavior. Find out what they did and how they did it.

QUILTERS AND SEWERS The Grand is hosting a special sale. In honor of Mary Hartten (sister of Barb Pagel) her family donated her collection of fabric, and other sewing and quilting supplies. This will be held Saturday, October 21st, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm at The Grand in New Ulm.

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

ENGLISH:

Dear community: What joy it gave me to celebrate the Eucharist with you at Saint Andrew last Sunday and to get to know some of you. I would like to share a biblical prayer with you and invite you to pray it daily.

Beloved Heavenly Father, Lord, God of hosts, You who have created us with your divine hands and nourish us with your love, caring for us and pouring your blessings upon our lives. You who have chosen us from the world. We implore forgiveness for our sins, our shortcomings, and our complaints. We ask that you turn your gaze toward us and visit us. We beseech you to protect and guide us, to grant us an abundant life and to praise you eternally. Restore our strength, Lord, so that we may carry out the work in the Kingdom of God with fruits that endure. We request this in the name of Jesus Christ, the guardian of our hearts and thoughts, our Peace that surpasses all understanding, and the cornerstone that the builders rejected. Amen.

SPANISH:

Querida comunidad: que alegría me dió celebrar la Eucaristía con ustedes en San Andrés el Domingo pasado y conocerlos. Les comparto una oración bíblica y les invito a rezarla diariamente.

Amado Padre Celestial, Señor, Dios de los ejércitos, Tú que nos has creado con tus divinas manos y nos nutres con tu inmenso amor, cuidando de nosotros y derramando tus bendiciones sobre nuestras vidas. Tú que nos has elegido del mundo. Te imploramos perdón por nuestros pecados, nuestras faltas y nuestras quejas. Te pedimos que vuelvas tu mirada hacia nosotros y que nos visites. Te rogamos que nos protejas y nos guíes, que nos concedas una vida abundante y nos des la oportunidad de alabarte eternamente. Restaura nuestras fuerzas, Señor, para que podamos llevar a cabo la obra en el Reino de Dios con frutos que perduren. Te pedimos esto en el nombre de Jesucristo, el guardián de nuestros corazones y pensamientos, nuestra Paz que supera todo entendimiento y la piedra angular que los constructores despreciaron. Amén.
