Reflection meditation:

It's National Vocation Awareness Week. We need more priests. The AFC pays half my salary and the Diocese pays the other half so I can fulfill two missions – our parishes and Director of Vocations for the Diocese. Good priests come from normal parents and families who have chosen to follow Jesus Christ. When you received the Sacrament of Baptism, Jesus Christ made you his disciple and missionary. Your mission is Christ's last commandment, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you" (Matthew 28:19-20). Yes, you! Yes, it's your mission! But, how? When we think of missionaries, we think of travelling to distant places where people have never heard the name of Jesus Christ. Your mission is easier than this. Christ needs Catholics who are willing to share the Gospel right at home with the people on your block, in your profession, business, school, team, family, friend-group, hobby-group, card-group, and community organization. I hear, "but that's not what I do Father." My response, read Thessalonians 2:7-9, "We were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us." When we share life with people, we earn the right to share Christ with them. When you go on a fishing trip with your buddies, you earn the right to talk about important things that really matter. If you care enough about the people you spend time with, do you care enough to share Christ's promise of salvation with them? If you feel God is calling you to be a Catholic on mission, this YouTube video by Dr. Ted Sri may encourage you, "The Challenge to Encounter Jesus Christ Daily," <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cBPocKeToMk>.

Blessings, Fr. Rolling

MASS INTENTIONS can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY This is a winter weather reminder that if law enforcement announces a no travel advisory, or if school is cancelled or has a late start in your school district, there will be NO mass in your town that day. Also, if school is let out early due to weather, there will be no parish activity or Religious Education Class that evening. Please be sure to sign up for “Flocknote” by texting allsaints4 to 84576 to get text updates from parish staff and listen to the following station for weather related announcements: KNUJ (860 AM) in New Ulm

SCAMMER ALERT Scammers often scour parish websites and bulletins for staff and parishioner cell phone numbers and/or email addresses, which they then use to try to scam those people. One of the ways they do this is by sending text messages or emails to parishioners claiming to be the pastor and then asking them for help. Please know that Fr. Rolling will never solicit financial help from you in this way. Unfortunately, this is a frequent occurrence at Catholic churches. If you receive one of these messages, do not respond. Always check the actual email address and cell phone number. Simply delete and block the number/email from which the message came.

YOU ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE DIOCESE OF NEW ULM FAITH FORMATION DAY. THE PARISH VOLUNTEER TEAM OF ST. WILLIBRORD'S CATHOLIC UNITED FINANCIAL are meeting on Wednesday, November 15, at 7:30 AM (prior to mass at 8:30 AM) to wrap up the year and discuss donations. This meeting is for all CUF members. Please come join us! Local Sales Representative is David Schonhardt, telephone: 763-760-9058, e-mail: dschonhardt@catholicunited.org

ST. WILLIBRORD, WHOSE FEAST DAY IS NOVEMBER 7th, lived from around 658 AD to 739 AD. He was born near York, Northumbria, England and died at age 81 in Echternach, Luxembourg. He is the Patron Saint of Luxembourg and he is the only Saint buried in the crypt Basilica of Echternach, Luxembourg. St. Willibrord connected with Christ and became "Apostle to the Frisians" (modern day Netherlands) and first bishop of Utrecht.

He was trained and ordained at a religious site located in the townland of Garryhundon, Co Carlow commonly referred to as Killogan, Rath Melsigi (Rathmelsh) or Clonmelsh. During the 7th and 8th centuries this site was the most important Anglo-Saxon ecclesiastical settlement in Ireland. From 678AD to c.720AD many Englishmen were trained for the continental mission. In 690AD Willibrord led a successful mission from Carlow, made up of Irishmen and Englishmen to the continent.

He was consecrated as a Bishop by Pope Sergius I in Rome in 695AD. In 698AD he established his monastery in Echternach, said to be the oldest town in Luxembourg. As part of his abbey in Echternach, he established a scriptorium where they produced many of the bibles, psalms and prayer books that are to be found today in the great libraries of Europe. His signature is the oldest dateable signature in the English language and is written in a book that was probably written in Co. Carlow. This book is now housed in the Bibliotheque Nationale de France in Paris.

You can visit his tomb at the Basilica of Saint Willibrord, Echternach, Luxembourg, which was the homebase for his evangelization outreach. The motto written over his tomb is inspired by Isaiah 12:3, "You will draw waters in joy from the fountains of the Savior." St. Willibrord shines "like the sun in the Kingdom" of the Father (Matthew 13:24-43). Attached to the Gibbon bulletin is a prayer card of St. Willibrord.

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

ENGLISH:

Dear community: I invite you to join in the devotion of the 46 Rosaries, which consists of praying one or more rosaries before December 12th. We offer these prayers for peace in the world, for the Hispanic ministry in our parishes, and for the intentions of each individual. Here is the prayer for this week. Blessings to each one of you and your families!

Beloved Heavenly Father, Sovereign King and Lord of hosts: We ask that you grant us the grace of Your Spirit so that from the depths of our hearts, we may exalt and glorify Your holy name. We implore you, Lord, to keep us in constant peace and harmony. Grant wisdom to those among us who bear greater responsibilities, authority, or power, so that they may be examples of selfless service. May we not seek to be exalted but, out of love for You, may we not fear to humble ourselves. We pray for this in the name of our Master and guide, Jesus Christ, who taught us through His example to live in humility and love. Amen.

SPANISH:

Querida comunidad: Les invito a unirse a la devoción de los 46 Rosarios, la cual consiste en rezar uno o más rosarios antes del 12 diciembre, los ofrecemos por la paz en el mundo, por el ministerio hispano en nuestras parroquias y por las intenciones de cada quien. Y aquí les dejo la oración para esta semana. Bendiciones a cada uno de ustedes y sus familias!

Amado Padre Celestial, Rey soberano y Señor de los ejércitos: Te pedimos que nos concedas la gracia de Tu Espíritu, para que desde lo más profundo de nuestros corazones podamos exaltar y glorificar Tu santo nombre. Te imploramos, Señor, que nos mantengas en constante paz y armonía. Concede sabiduría a aquellos entre nosotros que tienen más grandes responsabilidades, autoridad o poder, para que sean ejemplos de servicio desinteresado. Que no busquemos ser exaltados, sino que, por amor a Ti, no temamos humillarnos. Te rogamos esto en el nombre de nuestro Maestro y guía, Jesucristo, quien nos enseñó con su ejemplo a vivir en humildad y amor. Amén.
