Reflection meditation

Lent is a time when we turn back to God like this man. Jacques Fesch was a murderer and Christ changed his life. Jacques Fesch wrote: "Yes, it is consoling to realize that a sinner like me can receive such gifts. You know my weak nature, spineless, inclining to what is evil and to the line of least resistance. If I am so filled with delights, what can we say about others who are far more willing and generous? May you too turn to the love of God. At this very moment you are fluttering around the light like a blind butterfly. You sense its nearness but you can't make your way toward it because you don't know how. I affirm hope that you too will find it. You know that I am frank with you, even if it means saying terrible things to you. Well, look - never write and never think that now you have the right to rest in an artificial and illusory life! If you thought that, you would be insulting the cross... You have to expiate and ask forgiveness from God." Jacques Fesch is being considered for sainthood. If God can set a murderer free, have hope and think of what God can do for you!

Congratulations again to all the students who received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Thank you to our religious education teachers, parents, sponsors, and especially the students who applied themselves in their preparation to receive the sacrament. Congratulations! May the Holy Spirit guide your lifetime and timelines. Thank you to all the liturgical volunteers, the musicians from all three parishes, the AFC Liturgy Committee, Fr. Bruno Santiago, and Bishop Chad for a beautiful Mass. Thank you to the Saint Andrew Administrative Council, Maintenance Committee, our music minister Mary Schwartz, and Ryan Zimmer with Advanced Ministry Technologies who installed the new sound system in time for the Confirmation Mass. When everything comes together, you know the Holy Spirit is leading our communities and AFC. Come Holy Spirit!

Prayers and blessings for Fr. Bruno Santiago. Thank you for blessing each parish with your visit to the Diocese of New Ulm, DNU. You have our prayers and support in the India Water Project. Safe travels back to the land of St. Mother Teresa and St. Thomas the Apostle! "Let us not become weary in doing good," Galatians 6:9.

INTERESTED IN A MASS INTENTION? Mass Intentions can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

KNOW A SAINT March 9 – Dominic Savio was born in 1842 into a peasant family in Italy. At the age 12 he was studying to be a priest with Saint John Bosco at Oratory in Turin. He impressed Don Bosco with his desire to be a priest and to help him in his work with neglected boys. A peacemaker and an organizer young Dominic founded a group he called the Company of the Immaculate Conception. As a youth, Dominic spent hours in prayer. Even in play, he said that at times, "It seems heaven is opening just above me. I am afraid I may say or do something that will make the other boys laugh." Dominic would say, "I can't do big things. But I want all I do, even the smallest thing, to be for the greater glory of God." Dominic was painfully aware that he was different from his peers. He tried to keep his piety from his friends lest he have to endure their laughter. Even after his death at the age of 14, his youth marked him as a misfit among the saints and some argued that he was too young to be canonized. Pope Pius X wisely disagreed. For no one is too young—or too old or too anything else—to achieve the holiness to which we all are called. He was canonized in 1954.

A CHANGE TO THIS YEAR’S HOLY WEEK AND EASTER MASS SCHEDULE was decided by the AFC Liturgy Committee. The Easter Vigil Mass location will start to rotate through each parish this year. In past years it was at St. Andrew’s Church. This year it will be at St. Francis de Sales. This will be similar to the Christmas Vigil Mass which is already in a rotation through the three parishes. A concern is always the amount of seating, but volunteers at each parish will develop plans to accommodate and welcome visitors. We will ask for extra ushers to be on hand to assist people even as Mass begins.

HISPANIC COMMUNITY

ENGLISH:

Dear community: We are approaching the month in which we will celebrate the countless blessings that Jesus bestowed upon us through his life, passion, and death. The readings of this Sunday invite us to delve into these profound mysteries of salvation. Let us pray together: “Lord God, with your immense mercy, you have liberated us from slavery, and your blessings extend to the thousandth generation. You who possess the words of eternal life, we ask you to grant us the grace to remain faithful to you. May we never turn towards false idols, but rather love you deeply, even to the point of giving our lives for you, just as you gave yours for us. We ask this through Christ, who is the strength and wisdom of God. Amen”

SPANISH:

Querida comunidad: Nos acercamos al mes en el que celebraremos las innumerables bendiciones que Jesús nos otorgó con su vida, pasión y muerte. Las lecturas de este domingo nos invitan a sumergirnos en estos profundos misterios de salvación. Oremos juntos: “Señor Dios, quien con tu inmensa misericordia nos has liberado de la esclavitud y cuyas bendiciones se extienden hasta la milésima generación, Tú que posees las palabras de vida eterna, te pedimos que nos concedas la gracia de permanecer fieles a ti. Que nunca nos apartemos hacia los ídolos falsos, sino que te amemos profundamente, incluso hasta dar la vida por ti, así como tú lo hiciste por nosotros. Te lo pedimos por Cristo, quien es la fuerza y la sabiduría de Dios. Amén.”
