The story of Jesus yielding to Thomas' demand concerning his resurrection is probably one of the most moving accounts in history, standing out as it does as indisputable evidence to those who are slow of belief. What astonishes beyond measure is the way in which Jesus concedes to every detail of Thomas' demands; 'touch the scars on my hands, and place your hand in my side', In other words, Jesus does not reprimand Thomas for his stubbornness, but surrenders to it. And finally, towards the end, he offers a mild exhortation, urging him to be an unconditional believer. The Gospel does not say that Thomas followed up his demands by stretching out his hand and doing as invited; rather, like Peter, he probably broke down exclaiming: "My Lord and my God!" We can well imagine his inner feelings and those of his fellow disciples. Several of the appearances of Jesus to his disciples were when they were gathered together in community. The members of the early Christian community were powerful witnesses to mutual concern. People today, living in an isolated consumerist competitive and alienating atmosphere... especially in an urban context, long for a sense of community and mutual concern. That is what every Christian community should earnestly seek to be and provide.

"Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the Easter people and Hallelujah is our song."
~St. John Paul II

Today we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday in the Catholic Church. Jesus asked St. Faustina to ensure that the Sunday after Easter become the "Feast of Mercy." He promised that anyone who honors Him as the King of Mercy and prays the Chaplet of Divine Mercy will receive special graces and great mercy. "Jesus, I trust in you!"

Fr. Bruno OSB

THIS COMING NEXT WEEK, APRIL 17TH-APRIL 21ST, I WILL NOT BE IN THE OFFICE DURING NORMAL WORKING HOURS. I am on Grand Jury Duty and am not sure as to when I will be in. Please either leave a phone message or an email if you need to get a hold of me and I will get back to you as soon as possible. Thanks.

THERE ARE FEW MASS INTENTIONS SCHEDULED ON THE CALENDAR especially Winthrop. Intentions can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

Liturgy Matters #24

The third part of the preface connects with the preceding by always saying, "Therefore..." With this it presents our desire and our request of God that our voices might blend with the voices of all the angels and saints in singing God's praises. We have stated that the priest leading this prayer images for the assembly the reality of Christ as head of his praying body. The phrase "through Jesus Christ our Lord" in the preface, as well as the second part which expresses his action on our behalf, give occasion to add a refinement to how we understand this. Thus, while it is true that the priest is a sacrament of Christ in his role as head, we are not to imagine somehow that he is Christ. He is an image of Christ but at the same time distinguishable from him.

The preface leads up to the Holy, Holy, Holy, where we all sing the heavenly hymn that has been revealed to us by several key scriptural texts. These texts unveil for us to some extent the invisible realities into which we are now caught up. There is first of all the vision of God that the prophet Isaiah had when he was caught up in prayer and, as he says, "I saw the Lord seated on a high and lofty throne, with the train of his garment filling the temple." He goes on to describe what he saw: "Seraphim were stationed above; each of them had six wings: with two they veiled their faces, with two they veiled their feet, and with two they hovered aloft." Then he hears them crying aloud to one another: "Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord of hosts! All the earth is filled with his glory!" In Revelation, John writes a very similar vision when he is "caught up in ecstasy on the Lord's day" and "writes on a scroll" the visions he sees of the heavenly liturgy. At one point in his vision he sees the very throne of God, surrounded by the same winged creatures that Isaiah had seen. He too gives us the words of their ceaseless hymn. He tells us, "Day and night, without pause, they sang: 'Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is to come!'" These visions of the holy prophet and apostle help us to take the measure of all that is happening at Mass when we sing the same words of the angelic song.
