The story of the woman caught in adultery resonates in the headlines today. How often have we heard of someone shamed in public by the exposure of spousal betrayal? While sin is sin, at the same time an honest assessment leads us to recognize that none of us is completely pure. The corruption of sin is part of each one of us.

The blessing is that God offers us mercy and forgiveness. The gift from God is something that we all want for ourselves. But almost like selfish children, we are sometimes less inclined to share God's mercy and forgiveness with others. The hardest part of sinfulness may not be the confession and turning back to God. After all, God is always merciful. The most difficult part of sin may be turning toward others and forgiving them.

“Lent...

is like a long retreat in which we can turn back into ourselves and listen to the voice of God, in order to defeat the temptations of the Evil One.”

~Pope Benedict XVI

You are encouraged to receive the sacrament of reconciliation and experience the forgiveness and mercy of God.

THE 61ST ANNUAL NEW ULM DIOCESAN COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN CONVENTION will be held on Saturday, April 30, 2022 at the Church of Holy Redeemer in Marshall, MN. The theme for the convention is “Trust in His Goodness”. The speakers will be Angela Kenneke and Fr. Brendan Rolling, OSB. Angela Kenneke is a veteran broadcast journalist and award-winning investigative reporter. Over the last decade, many of Angela’s stories focused on the growing opioid crisis. On May 16, 2018, the day her 21-year-old daughter, Emily, died of a Fentanyl overdose, Angela was working on an investigation into Good Samaritan Laws and overdose deaths. Angela has taken Emily’s story nationwide and even internationally. Angela speaks tirelessly about the issues surrounding opioid addiction, a parent’s frustration and sense of helplessness and tells it all from the perspective of a mother who has lost her child. Angela started a non-profit organization called “Emily’s Hope”, because she never gave up hope on her daughter and now wants to offer hope to other families struggling with addiction. The afternoon speaker will be Fr. Brendan Rolling, OSB, who will talk about depression and suicide and how we can best help those effected.

Join other women of the Diocese for Mass and the presentation of the NUDCCW Woman of the Year, along with lunch, silent auction and various exhibits and booth displays to fill the day.
