This is a day of great excitement, of intense experience for the disciples of Jesus, for the devout women, for Peter, John and others: initially of sadness, pain, doubt, questioning; then of encounter, discovery, joy; ultimately of understanding of the scriptures. Remembering the prophecies of Jesus, mounting joy, eagerness to share the good news with others. This gives us a deeper grasp of the meaning of Christian life itself which is full of anxiety and pain, doubt and self-questioning. Those who are sincere in their search gradually discover solutions and make sudden discoveries. Their eyes open, and they understand the deeper meaning of day-to-day events and relevant scriptural texts. Fading faith is stimulated to life once again, and things never hoped for before begin to make sense, confidence increasing and a sense of mission taking over one's life. Hidden energies reveal themselves, initiatives multiply, and the Good News reaches to the ends of the earth. Just as Peter reached Rome and Thomas, India, apostolic men and women today reach the limits of their possibilities, to the peripheries and fringes, to the violent and the vulnerable, the hesitant and the desperate, giving them the Good News that the Risen Lord is at their side. Alleluia!

“God loves each of us as if there were only one of us.” ~St. Augustine

I would like to wish each of you a blessed Easter. Keep in mind we celebrate Easter for a full fifty days.

Give Sundays to God - God intended Sundays as days for worship, rest and charity for His people. In today's world it can be challenging to “keep holy the Lord's Day.”

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 16. In this feast, we celebrate the fulfillment of what Easter is all about. Divine Mercy Sunday is an invitation for each of us - church and unchurched alike - to examine the practice of our faith and to trust in God's mercy for all, especially those in greatest need.

Fr. Bruno OSB

THERE ARE FEW MASS INTENTIONS SCHEDULED ON THE CALENDAR especially Winthrop. Intentions can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

Liturgy Matters #23

Continuing with the Eucharistic prayer, we now come to what is called the "preface". The preface is not to be misunderstood as a kind of preamble or introduction, on the contrary, in this context the word preface comes from the Latin word prae-fari which means "to do in front of" or "proclaim in the presence of." Therefore, the preface begins what the entire Eucharistic prayer will be: a proclaiming and a performing before God the Father of the Church's prayer.

There are three parts to the Eucharistic prayer. The first part picks up the very words of the last phrase of the preceding dialogue and begins speaking to the Father with the words, "Truly it is right and just to give you thanks, Father..." It is important to notice that the direction of the prayer is toward the Father, as throughout the prayer the Father is named directly, our prayer is from the Church to God the Father.

The second part of the preface always picks up on the phrase "through Christ our Lord" and develops it in a way that is unique to each preface. This is always some succinct expression of what Christ has done for us, phrased to express the particularity of the feast or season. It is also a unique expression of how we as Christians give thanks for what Christ has done for us. Giving thanks to the Father consists of far more than simply our good manners, something along the lines of our knowledge enough to say thanks to anyone who may have done us a service or a kindness. The biblical way of giving thanks consists in a profound recognition of what God has actually done in what we are thanking Him for. The biblical word "confess" is a word that often accompanies the thanksgiving of the Church, and it is a word that swings in two directions at once. Recounting what God has done is called "confessing God", and includes praise of Him, both implicitly and explicitly. The greatness of God in His deeds also brings in its wake an awareness of our own smallness and, worse, our infidelity. Therefore, in the same breath we confess our sins. These are not different movements of prayer but various facets of the one action of giving thanks.
