Jesus wasn't concerned about what others thought. And lest we imagine that everyone around him was constantly worshiping him and adoring his divinity, today's reading reminds us that even in the presence of the Lord, skeptics were all around. So, should we be surprised if we must deal with a bit of ridicule ourselves? As faithful Christians, we will at times be called to chart a course that doesn't make sense in the eyes of the world. We must be called to take a stand for the unborn or elderly in a culture that considers life to be expandable. We may be faced with a decision at work that requires us to adhere to an ethical code. Perhaps we will have to sacrifice a relationship because of pressure to ignore Christian morality. Or maybe the situation could be as simple as dealing with the smirks that arise when we say a prayer before eating at a restaurant. Whether we face a snicker or blatant discrimination against our religious freedom, we should not waver when such opposition comes our way. Jesus faced it and so will we. The question is only how we will respond.

“Do not lose your inward peace for anything whatsoever, even if your whole world seems upset.”
~ St. Francis de Sales

July 1, 2021 marks the beginning of our new fiscal year. Thank you to the generous and consistent givers in our AFC.

Thank you to all who had a part in the celebration of my 25th Jubilee of First Vows in the Order of St. Benedict. I appreciate all of the good wishes from my friends and the faithful. The day was a strong affirmation of my call to the monastic life and I enjoyed it very much.

Fr. Bruno OSB
