The Most Holy Trinity, the communion of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, the source of all Creation, Redemption and Sanctification and the origin and culmination of love is the Mystery of mysteries. Human beings have toiled in vain to comprehend, interpret and explain the mystery of the Trinity but have humbly accepted the truth that it is beyond their comprehension and understanding. God's unconditional love for His children led Him to send His only Son to us, the Son committed to follow and live the Father's will sacrificed himself to redeem us, and the Spirit who teaches us to call God, Abba, Father, sanctifies us. God's love goes beyond all human conditions and realms and penetrates each fiber of our being to grant us his gift of salvation.

The Trinity is a mystery to be believed and lived and not a concept to be explained. The Trinity invites us to live the virtues of faith, hope and love and practice values of self-sacrifice and self-giving. The Trinity teaches us that there is but One, Absolute and Eternal Being from whom all things proceed and unto whom all shall return. May the Father, who created us in his own image and likeness, Jesus who redeemed us on the cross, and the Holy Spirit who sanctifies us, make us truly Children of God!

“The faith of all Christians rests on the Trinity.” ~St. Caesarius of Arles

MASS INTENTIONS can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

Liturgy Matters #31

So, we have heard the Lord's command, "Do this in memory of me." The prayer the priest now begins explicitly states before the Father that we are doing exactly that. In all four of the Eucharistic prayers, this part of the prayer begins with a "therefore," and it is as important as the "therefore," that introduced the epiclesis. In the epiclesis we dared to ask for the Spirit to transform our gifts because it was God's own plan that a perfect offering be made to the glory of His name. Now we pray as we do because Jesus said, "Do this in memory of me." The "do this" refers to what we are doing now with bread and wine. The "in memory of me" refers to his death and Resurrection. The prayer the priest prays now presumes that this has been accomplished. And because it has been, while the Church remembers Jesus, she also offers to the Father his body and blood to which she has been joined. These are the two dimensions of the prayer: memorial and offering.

The next part of the Eucharistic prayer anticipates the ritual action of Christ's sacrifice and makes an urgent plea that what it means comes to pass in us. Using now a strong cultic language of sacrifice, we ask the Father to "look with favor on your Church's offering and see the Victim..." We stretch out, as it were, this moment of offering before the Father, knowing that the offering—Christ's body and blood—will be the basis on which the petition that follows is made: "Grant that we, who are nourished by his body and blood, may be filled with his Holy Spirit, and become one body, one Spirit in Christ." This is the second epiclesis, a second request for the Holy Spirit, this time not that the gifts be transformed into the body and blood of Christ but that we who receive them be transformed into these. This is our communion with Christ's sacrifice. It will be accomplished in our reception of his body and blood.

As her spiritual children, the National CCW is holding a 72-Hour Rosary Prayer Vigil for Peace from Saturday June 10th @ 7 pm ET through Tuesday June 13th. Please join in offering a rosary for Peace especially during the designated weekend!
