“His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.” Jesus gave his teachings out of love and concern. He gave them because he knew they were what his followers needed. He did not teach in order to control, manipulate, brainwash, or coerce us. Jesus gave us his teachings as a way of guiding us, protecting us, and walking alongside us - like a good shepherd. Sometimes, we may not like what the voice is saying. Sometimes we may be drawn towards a different path or think that the grass is greener elsewhere. But by humbly acknowledging that the Shepherd - and his church - have great wisdom and a unique perspective to share, we will be led in the right direction. Though it may feel like a sacrifice at first, ultimately this loyalty to the flock will enable us to enjoy the contentment of those who declare, “The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.”

“To be taken with love for a soul, God does not look on its greatness, but the greatness of its humility.” ~ St. John of the Cross

Treat others with kindness, not because they are kind, but because you are.

The weekend of July 31st & August 1st, I will be at the Church of St. Mary in Willmar for mission appeal through the Mission Co-op. Father Leon Martin of the Pallottine Fathers and Brothers will celebrate Mass with you and give a Mission Co-op presentation at All Saints AFC in my absence.

Fr. Bruno OSB

PLEASE LOOK OVER THE CURRENT MASS ASSIGNMENT LIST FOR EACH CHURCH. I had to make some changes with the Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and servers. Sorry for the confusion. Thanks.

Thank you to all the women in our parish for your continued support of our CCW.
