Jesus was attracting attention because of the miracles he had been working. In today's Gospel, a large crowd gathered to see if Jesus was really a miracle worker. This time, instead of performing a miraculous healing, Jesus performed a miracle that helped everyone who was there. He fed them all, out of the smallest bit of food. And with twelve baskets of leftovers. If any of them had been in doubt before, this sign made it clear. Jesus was the Messiah. Jesus not only met their needs, but he went beyond this by multiplying the loaves and fishes in such abundance, as if to say, "I want you to have what you need and more. And I have the power to provide it for you." This is the same Jesus that we believe in. This is the Lord we pray to and the One to whom we entrust our lives. This ancient Gospel story is not irrelevant to our lives; it is also part of our story, here, today. He has the power, and the desire, to give us all that we need and even more. He wants to feed us too, with a life of lasting fulfillment.

"If I can give you any advice, I beg you to get closer to the Eucharist and to Jesus...
We must pray to Jesus to give us the tenderness of the Eucharist."
~ St. Teresa of Kolkata

Next weekend, July 31st & August 1st, I will be at the Church of St. Mary in Willmar for a mission appeal through the Mission Co-op. Father Leon Martin of the Pallottine Fathers and Brothers will celebrate Mass with you and give a Mission Co-op presentation at All Saints AFC in my absence.

THE SOCIETY OF THE CATHOLIC APOSTOLATE, COMMONLY KNOWN AS THE PALLOTTINE FATHERS AND BROTHERS,

is an International Religious Community of Priests and Brothers serving the missions in over 59 countries. This was founded in 1835 by St. Vincent Pallotti, a Roman diocesan Priest to revive faith and rekindle charity among all and he called everyone to be an apostle of God's love and mercy. "Love of Christ urges us all" was his motto. The Pallottines work mostly in mission countries and the Pallottines in Milwaukee, WI, support the missions in India and Zambia, Africa. They bring the good news of God's love and salvation to the poor people in remote interior areas where there are no modern facilities by providing them the basic necessities of life as well as educating poor children in the villages as they share the Gospel of Christ. They run several parishes, boarding schools, orphanages, Clinics, technical institutes, self-employment programs for poor women in the villages as well as do various other socio- charitable works for the poor and needy. Their missions in India and Zambia are really growing and there is so much need in these missions and your generosity however small can make a difference to these people and bring them much hope and joy. You too can be an apostle! Thank you for your support and may God bless you.

NFP AWARENESS WEEK 2021 WILL BE HELD JULY 25-31. Pope Francis has inaugurated a new celebration that will coincide with NFP Awareness Week, the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. He has designated it as an annual celebration to be commemorated on the fourth Sunday of July to highlight the feast of Saints Joachim and Anne (July 26), the parents of Mary. The theme for this year is, I Am With You Always. It is a fitting celebration to include in the family centered NFP Awareness Week, which is highlighting the anniversary of the papal encyclical Humanae Vitae (July 25) that articulates Catholic teachings about human sexuality, conjugal love, and responsible parenthood. World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly provides a great opportunity to highlight the task grandparents and the elderly have in supporting their families. Please visit the Family Life page on the diocesan website for more information and resources on both NFP Awareness Week and World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly.

THE DIOCESE HAS RECEIVED NOTICE THAT CATHOLIC UNITED FINANCIAL IS SPONSORING A HOMETOWN PRIDE PHOTO CONTEST to showcase and celebrate the unique, memorable, natural, or historic cities, towns, and neighborhoods they serve in the Diocese of New Ulm. Photos selected will be featured and shared in a special 2022 calendar available to all members and friends of Catholic United Financial. Participants may submit up to three photos with a description explaining how each photo fits the contest theme. Submissions will be accepted from July 2 to Sept. 1, 2021. Winners will be announced on Sept. 10, 2021.
