What is honor? We esteem some people either for their office or for their accomplishments. Yet an individual that one person may greatly honor could just as easily be held in little fame by someone else. Some people would swoon to have a Hall of Fame football player sit at a table with them, while for others the opportunity would hold very little interest. Before we get swept up in the fame and glory of this world, it might be good to consider what honor really is - something fleeting, even if it should last untarnished through life. True honor belongs to those who enter the kingdom of God.

“We have been called to heal wounds, to unite what has fallen apart, and to bring home those who have lost their way.” ~St. Francis of Assisi

Thank you to everyone who came and supported the St. Andrew Fun Fest in any way. There was a wonderful showing of parishioners and friends in our All Saints AFC enjoying the day together.

We ask God’s blessing on all students, parents, teachers and administration as they begin a new academic year in the days and weeks ahead. May they be blessed with safe and peaceful transitions back to school.

Fr. Bruno OSB

THANK YOU FUN FEST 2022 WAS TRULY A BLESSING! We were blessed with fantastic weather, many family, friends and neighbors in attendance, dedicated and hardworking volunteers, and so many donations, positive powerful thoughts and prayers and an opportunity to come together in prayer and peace.

There are so many people to thank, so we extend our thanks to the people who headed up the different committees, the volunteers who graciously said, “Yes, I will gladly help!”, to the set up and tear down crews, to the people who prepared, served, and cleaned up with the serving and seating of the chicken dinner and the lunch and taco stands, (The food was all delicious!), organized and ran the games, bingo and the raffles, served beverages, provided music, donated and sold the beautiful produce and baked goods at the Country store and helped with Polka Mass.

Even with all of the help, donations, and hard work, we need and will gladly accept more volunteers and ideas to help us next year. Fun Fest 2023 will be held on Sunday, August 20, 2023. Please mark your calendar and join us for a fabulous day of coming together in fellowship. Mary Nachreiner and LeAnn Frank
