Even the richest person cannot buy salvation. This comes from being faithful to the Word of God. In a world in which so many people are poor, it can be easy to become accustomed to suffering. We may accept it as the state of the world, and become hardened to the constant appeals for help that cross our path. After all, we each have our own problems and our own financial constraints. But there will always be people who have less than we do. And the Gospel this week reminds us that Lazarus can be sitting at any door waiting for us to reach out and help him. We pass him by at peril to our soul.

“We think sometimes that poverty is only being hungry, naked and homeless.
The poverty of being unwanted, unloved and uncared for is the greatest poverty.
We must start in our own homes to remedy this kind of poverty.

~St. Teresa of Kolkata

When Jesus promised to be with us always, He wasn't just talking symbolically. He meant that He would stay with us - Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. In fact, when we go to Mass, we meet Jesus, Himself, “truly, really and substantially contained” in Holy Communion (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1374). Don't miss a single Sunday Mass. He is there every time.

Thank you to everyone who worked to prepare and serve the St. Francis pork chop supper and St. Willibrord meatball and ham dinner, sold raffle tickets, purchased dinners and tickets and supported the event in any way. It was good to see parishioners and friends coming together to enjoy the day.

The Installation Mass for Bishop Zielinski will be on Tuesday, September 27 at 1:00 p.m. at St. Mary's Church in Sleepy Eye. The Installation Mass will be livestreamed on the Diocesan website for everyone to view. www.dnu.org.

Rosary Procession

There will be a Rosary Procession in Sleepy Eye on Sunday, October 2 at 7:00 P.M. beginning at Schoenstatt on the Lake and ending at St. Mary's Church in Sleepy Eye. There will be a shuttle bus available from the St Mary's parking lot to Schoenstatt on the Lake beginning at 6:30 P.M. All are welcome!

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY Today, September 25, 2022 has been chosen by the USA Council of SERRA International as a day to honor our priests. Our priests play an indispensable yet mysterious role in mediating the sacred, of witnessing to the extraordinary in the special, yet ordinary moments of everyday life. How often do we really get to know our priests, and how often do we thank them for all they give us? Without the priesthood, there would be no Eucharist, and without the Eucharist, there would be no Catholic Church. Let us remember to say thank you to our priests often for all they do for us, and especially let us remember to pray for them every day! "Grant them wisdom, let their minds be sober and watchful, so that they may be filled with works of healing and words of instruction. May they teach your people in meekness and serve you in holiness with an undivided mind and a willing soul. Amen."

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY will be celebrated on Sunday, September 25th. Please help us thank Fr. Bruno for his service to our parish and area faith community, by joining us in the St. Willibrord's social hall after our 8:00 a.m. Mass for a delicious brunch featuring breakfast burritos (a variety to suit your tastes), baked goods, rolls, fresh fruit and beverages.
